The second-year class examination in Physical Diagnosis will be given tomorrow.

The re-examination for the first-year class in Materia Medica and Pharmacy will be held at 1:30 o'clock to-morrow.

A Resident Physician is desired at the Philadelphia Home for Incurables. Applicants should apply to Dr. Law- rence, 1120 Locust street.

Dr. Pepper will give a demonstration of microscopic specimens for the third and fourth-year classes on Sat- urday morning, May 1st.

The examination in Prescription Writing will be held in the Laboratory of Pharmacodynamics on Tues- day, May 4th, at 9 o'clock.

Members of the fourth-year class from Adams to Coughlin inclusive have reported for an examination in Clinical Surgery at the University Hospital at 1:45 p.m. to-day.

All gymnasium classes for students in the Department of Medicine will be suspended this afternoon on account of the annual outdoor demonstration on Franklin Field.

Examinations for men to fill four vacancies on the staff at the Pochunk Hospital will be held there at two o'clock on the afternoon of May 5th. The examination will be written and oral.

Applications for the position of Resi- dent Physician at St. Joseph's Hospi- tal must be made in person to Dr. George M. Marshall, 1819 Spruce street. The examinations will take place at the hospital at 6 P.M. on Saturday, May 1st.

Applications for appointment as Resi- dent Physician at the Presbyterian Hospital should be addressed to Dr. Charles M. Sickel, Professional Building, 1831 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. The hospital has lately put up an ad- dition and there is a good chance for a young physician.

Exchanges.

Students at Cornell have organized a Dramatic Club, "The Pilgrims of So- cieties" will be next year's production.

Dartmouth has a new gymnasium which will cost $150,000. Already $50,000 has been pledged and of this $25,000 has been paid.

A committee at the University of Michigan is preparing the final report for the establishment of a Uni- versity Press, like that at Chicago.

All news at Columbia University is sent from the boat house to the college by wireless telegraph, which has been installed by members of the Wireless Club.

The Michigan tennis team will take a trip East this spring and play matches with many of the eastern colleges. This shows the ever-increasing popularity of the sport.

The Junior Class of the Iowa Col- leges held a mock trial a short time ago to judge whether or not Mac- beth was guilty of the murder of Ban- co. After two and a half hours the jury brought in a verdict of guilty and fixed the penalty at life imprisonment.

COLLEGE MEMORIALS.

Commencement is drawing near. To those of us who are seniors it means at once the happiest and saddest days of our college careers. We have formed our lifetime's friendships; we have consummated the preparations for our life's work. In a few short weeks we shall join the host of "old class." We shall never all that for four long years has been so dear to us. We shall take away from Pennsylvania youth sweeter into manhood under the ever watchful eye of our Alma Mater. What can we leave in return?

In the greater events of graduation, Commencement, Class Day and Senior week we are apt to underestimate another event, a custom old in the annals of Pennsylvania, but one which will ever the old college halls to us when Commencement and Class Day and "farewell stunts" have long since become as ashes of dead memories.

During Commencement we shall plant an ivy sprout and leave a simple tablet imbedded in the walls of College Hall. The everlasting accompanying this are often gone over as an after thought. But this one act among all the others is our only material tribute to our Alma Mater.

When we return to Pennsylvania with dim, faded memories of our undergraduate life, there is not a gray-haired graduate who will not wander unconsciously perhaps, to his class stunts and ivy, and spurred by this gentle reminder, recall incidents of those hallowed days of student life, buried, almost covered in the dark recesses of his memory.

But the ivy fulfills a greater duty.

Our ivy covered buildings have become a tradition of Pennsylvania, a tradition that we recognize as undergraduates in our hearts. It is our gift to our Alma Mater, our own gift and treasure, holding it close to her heart, as it were, while it in turn--clings to her

SHAKE INTO YOUR SHOES.

Always feel free, a memory. It seems painful, probably not would, and perhaps will be with ease of mind and ease of hand. It is a valuable skill for the gentleman to possess. Try it on your hands and feet. Try it today, think of the kicks and the pain. By Saturday, you will be the envy of your companions, and your shoe is in a position to feel as much satisfaction as your companion. "I have been using your device" is a sentence that will be repeated by our shop to every customer. "I have been using your device" is the one that will be repeated by our shop to every customer.
